Dragon Seal Rosé 2002

Huailai County, Hebei Province, China

Winemaking Notes: This refreshingly, dry Rosé underwent only a short period of maceration (contact with the skins) to produce its delicate, slightly tinted color. The juice was then drained off to secondary stainless steel tanks for fermentation at cool temperatures to preserve its fresh, fruity flavors. No malolactic fermentation was used. While it is usually served chilled, this Rosé is also very enjoyable at room temperature.

Composition: 70% Cabernet Sauvignon / 20% Merlot
10% Gamay

Total Acidity: 0.60 g/100mL [Nml: 0.60 – 0.75]

pH: 3.5 [Nml: 3.0 – 3.6]

Alcohol: 12.5%

Production: 27,150 cases

- A smooth, dry Rosé, full of red berry aromas.
- Red fruit, pepper & soft spice flavors with a pleasing finish.
